

Electronic Communications Market Development

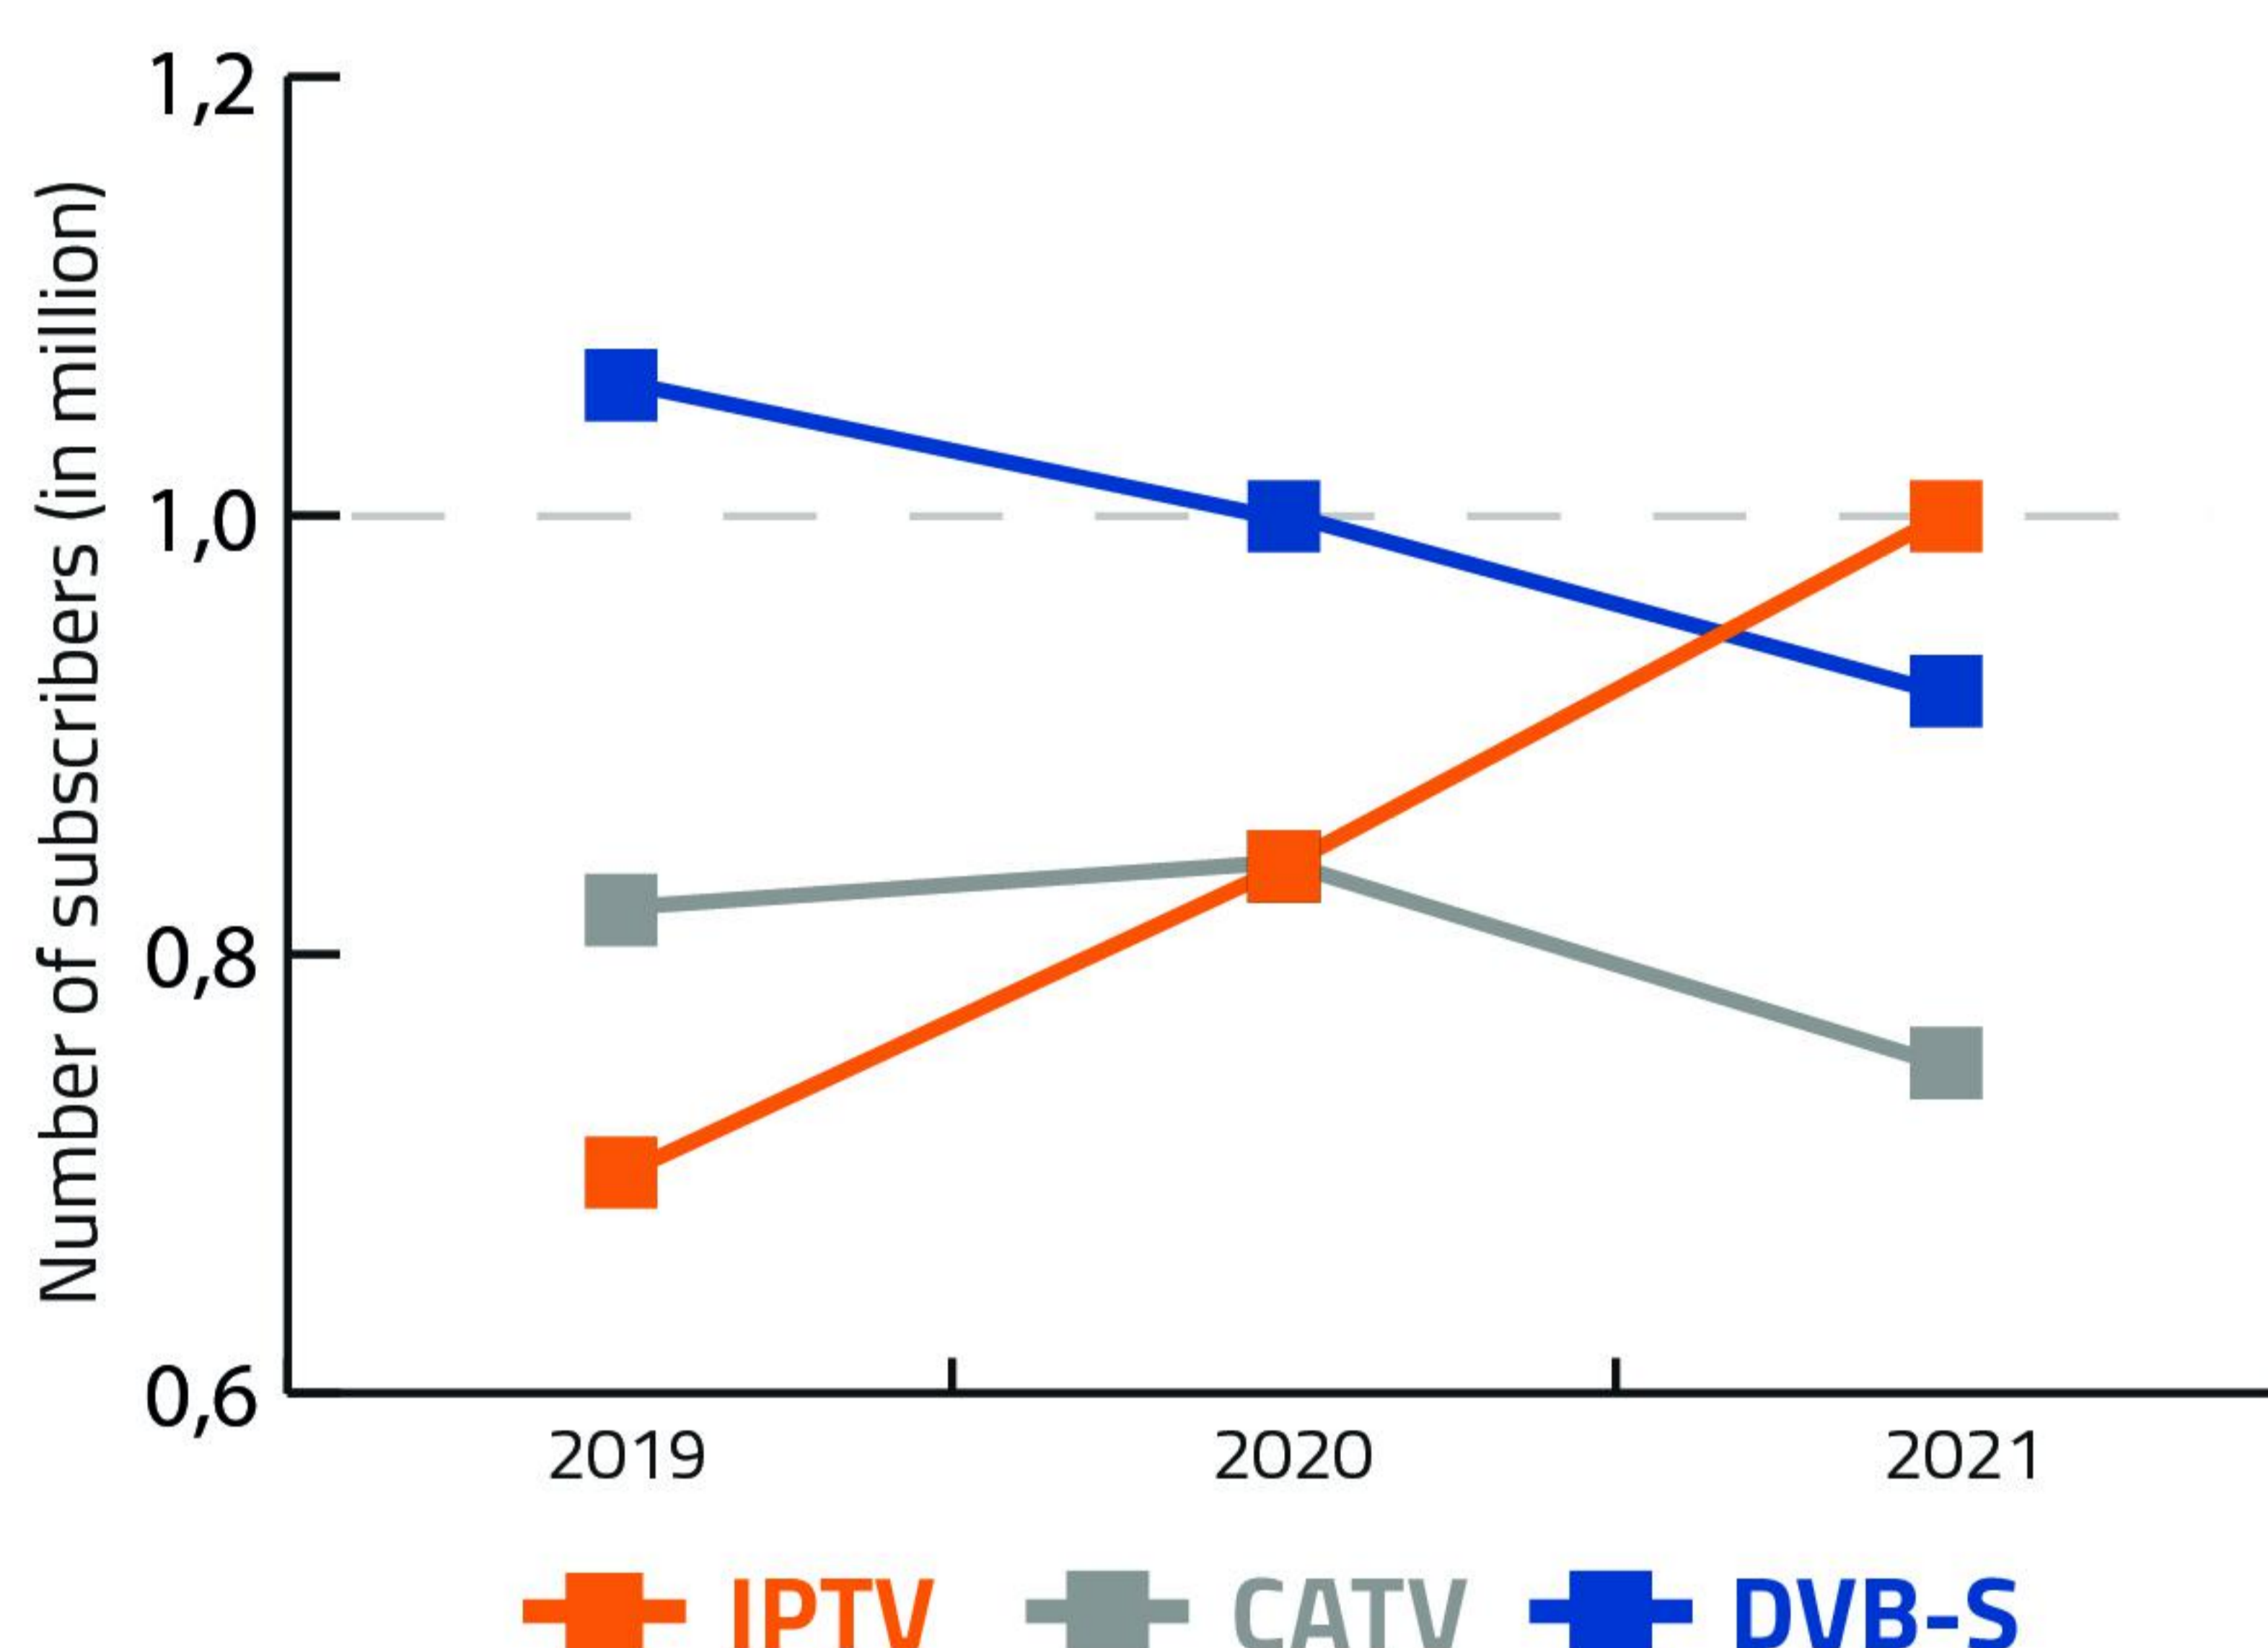

The mobile data volume annually increased by more than 50 %, also the average usage per 1 SIM card increased steadily.

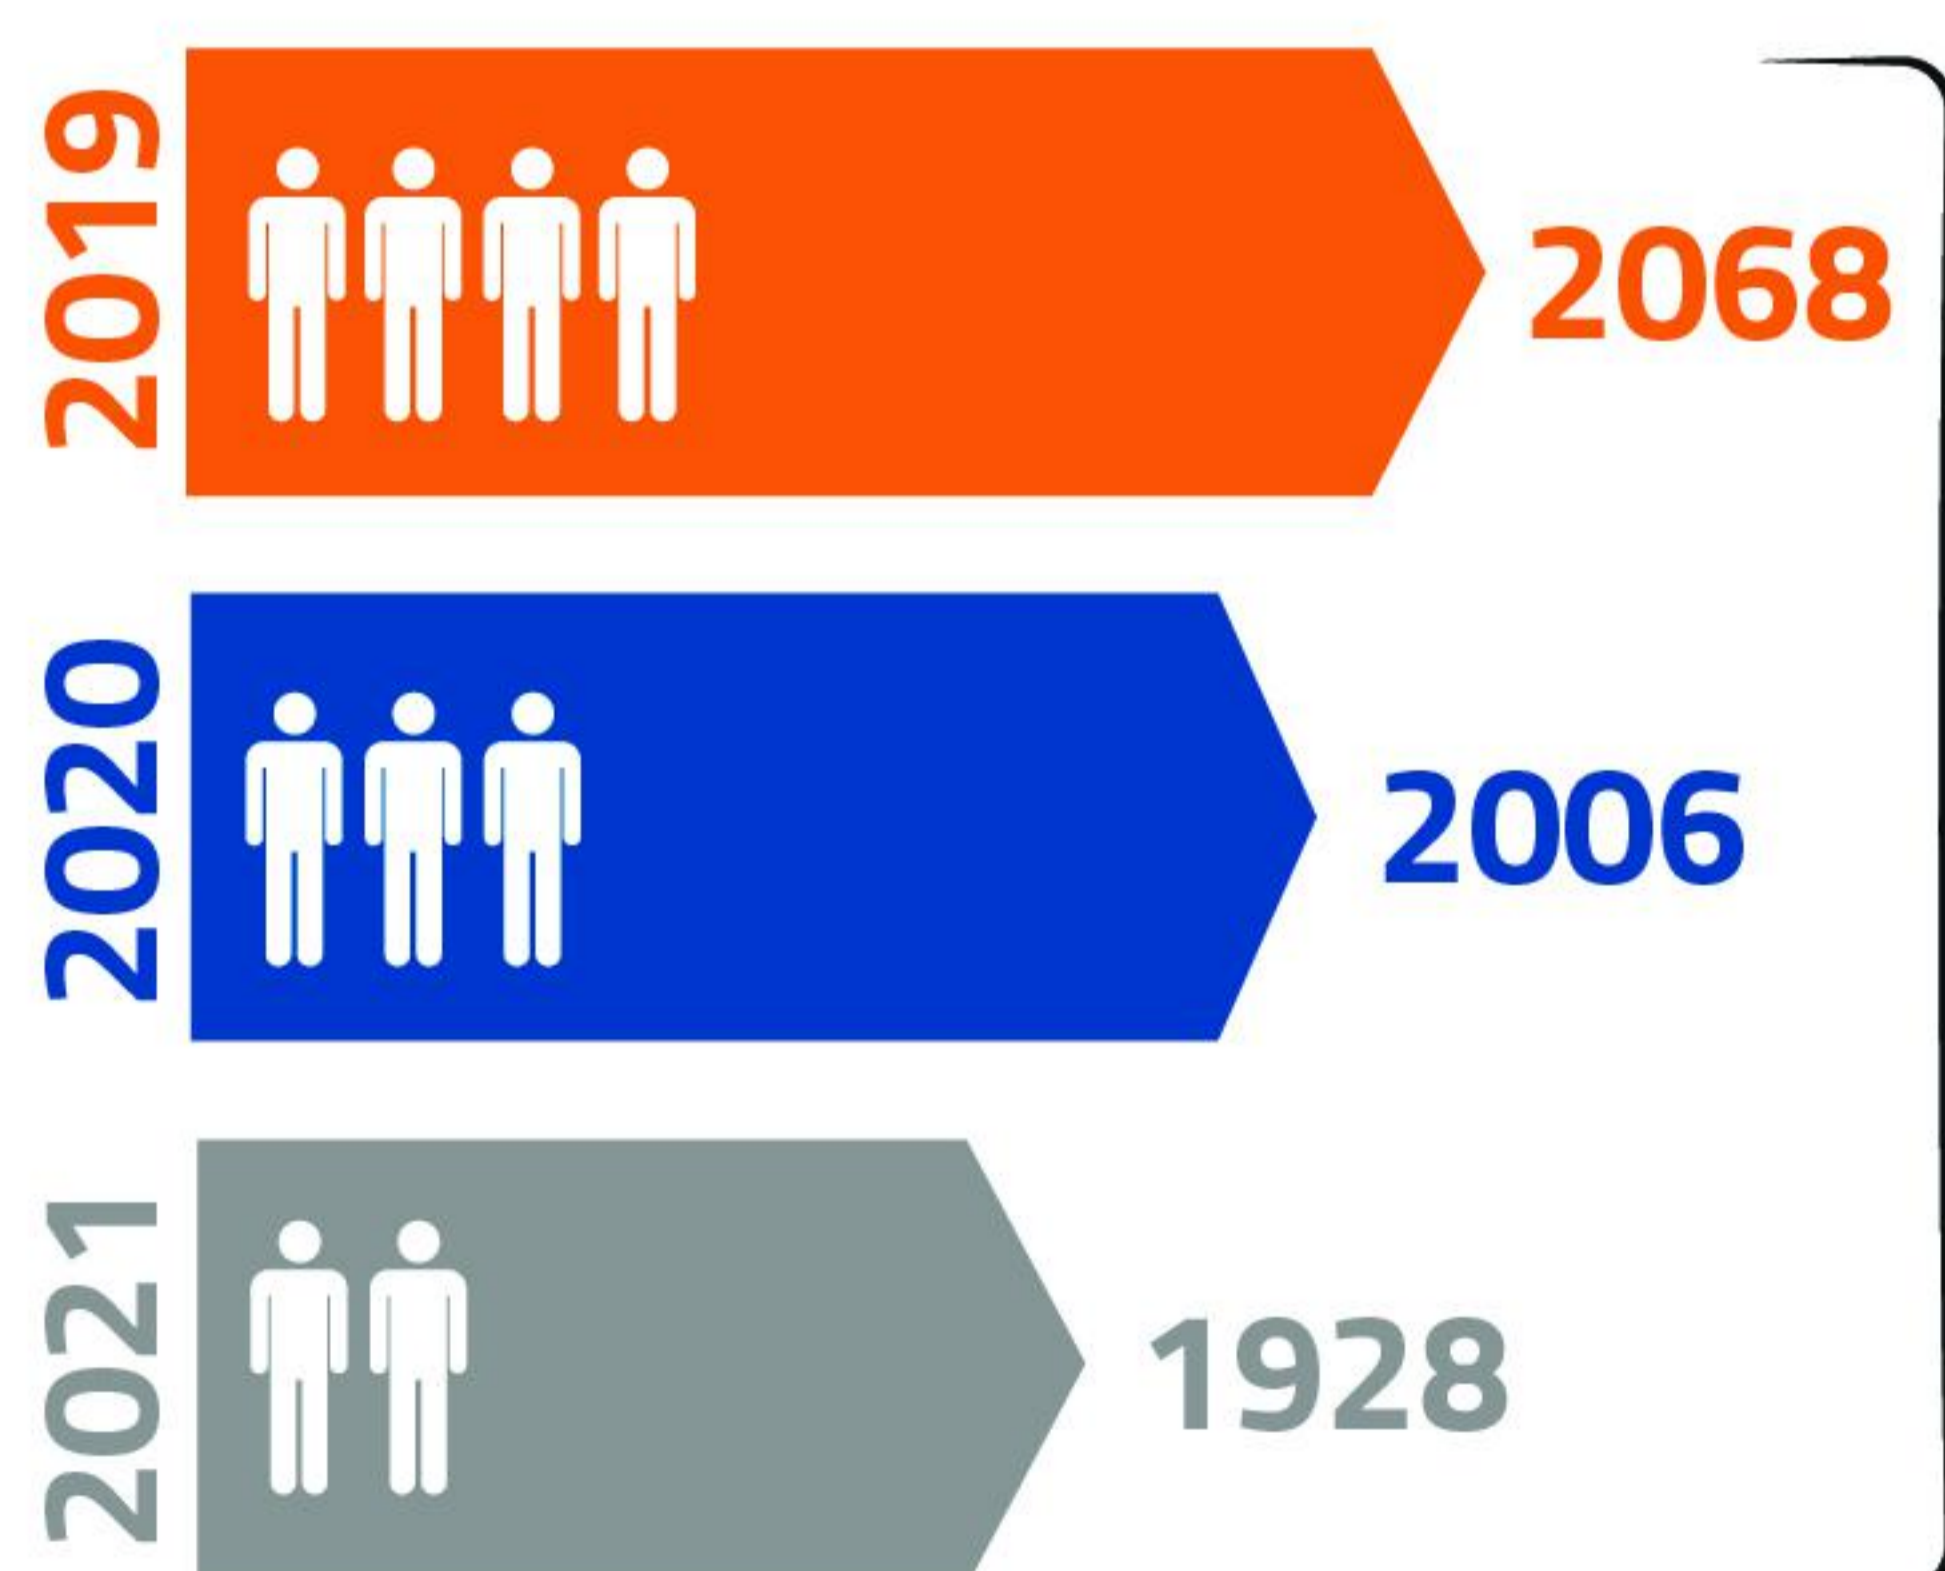

The increase of the number of SIM cards utilised for mobile internet access accelerated.

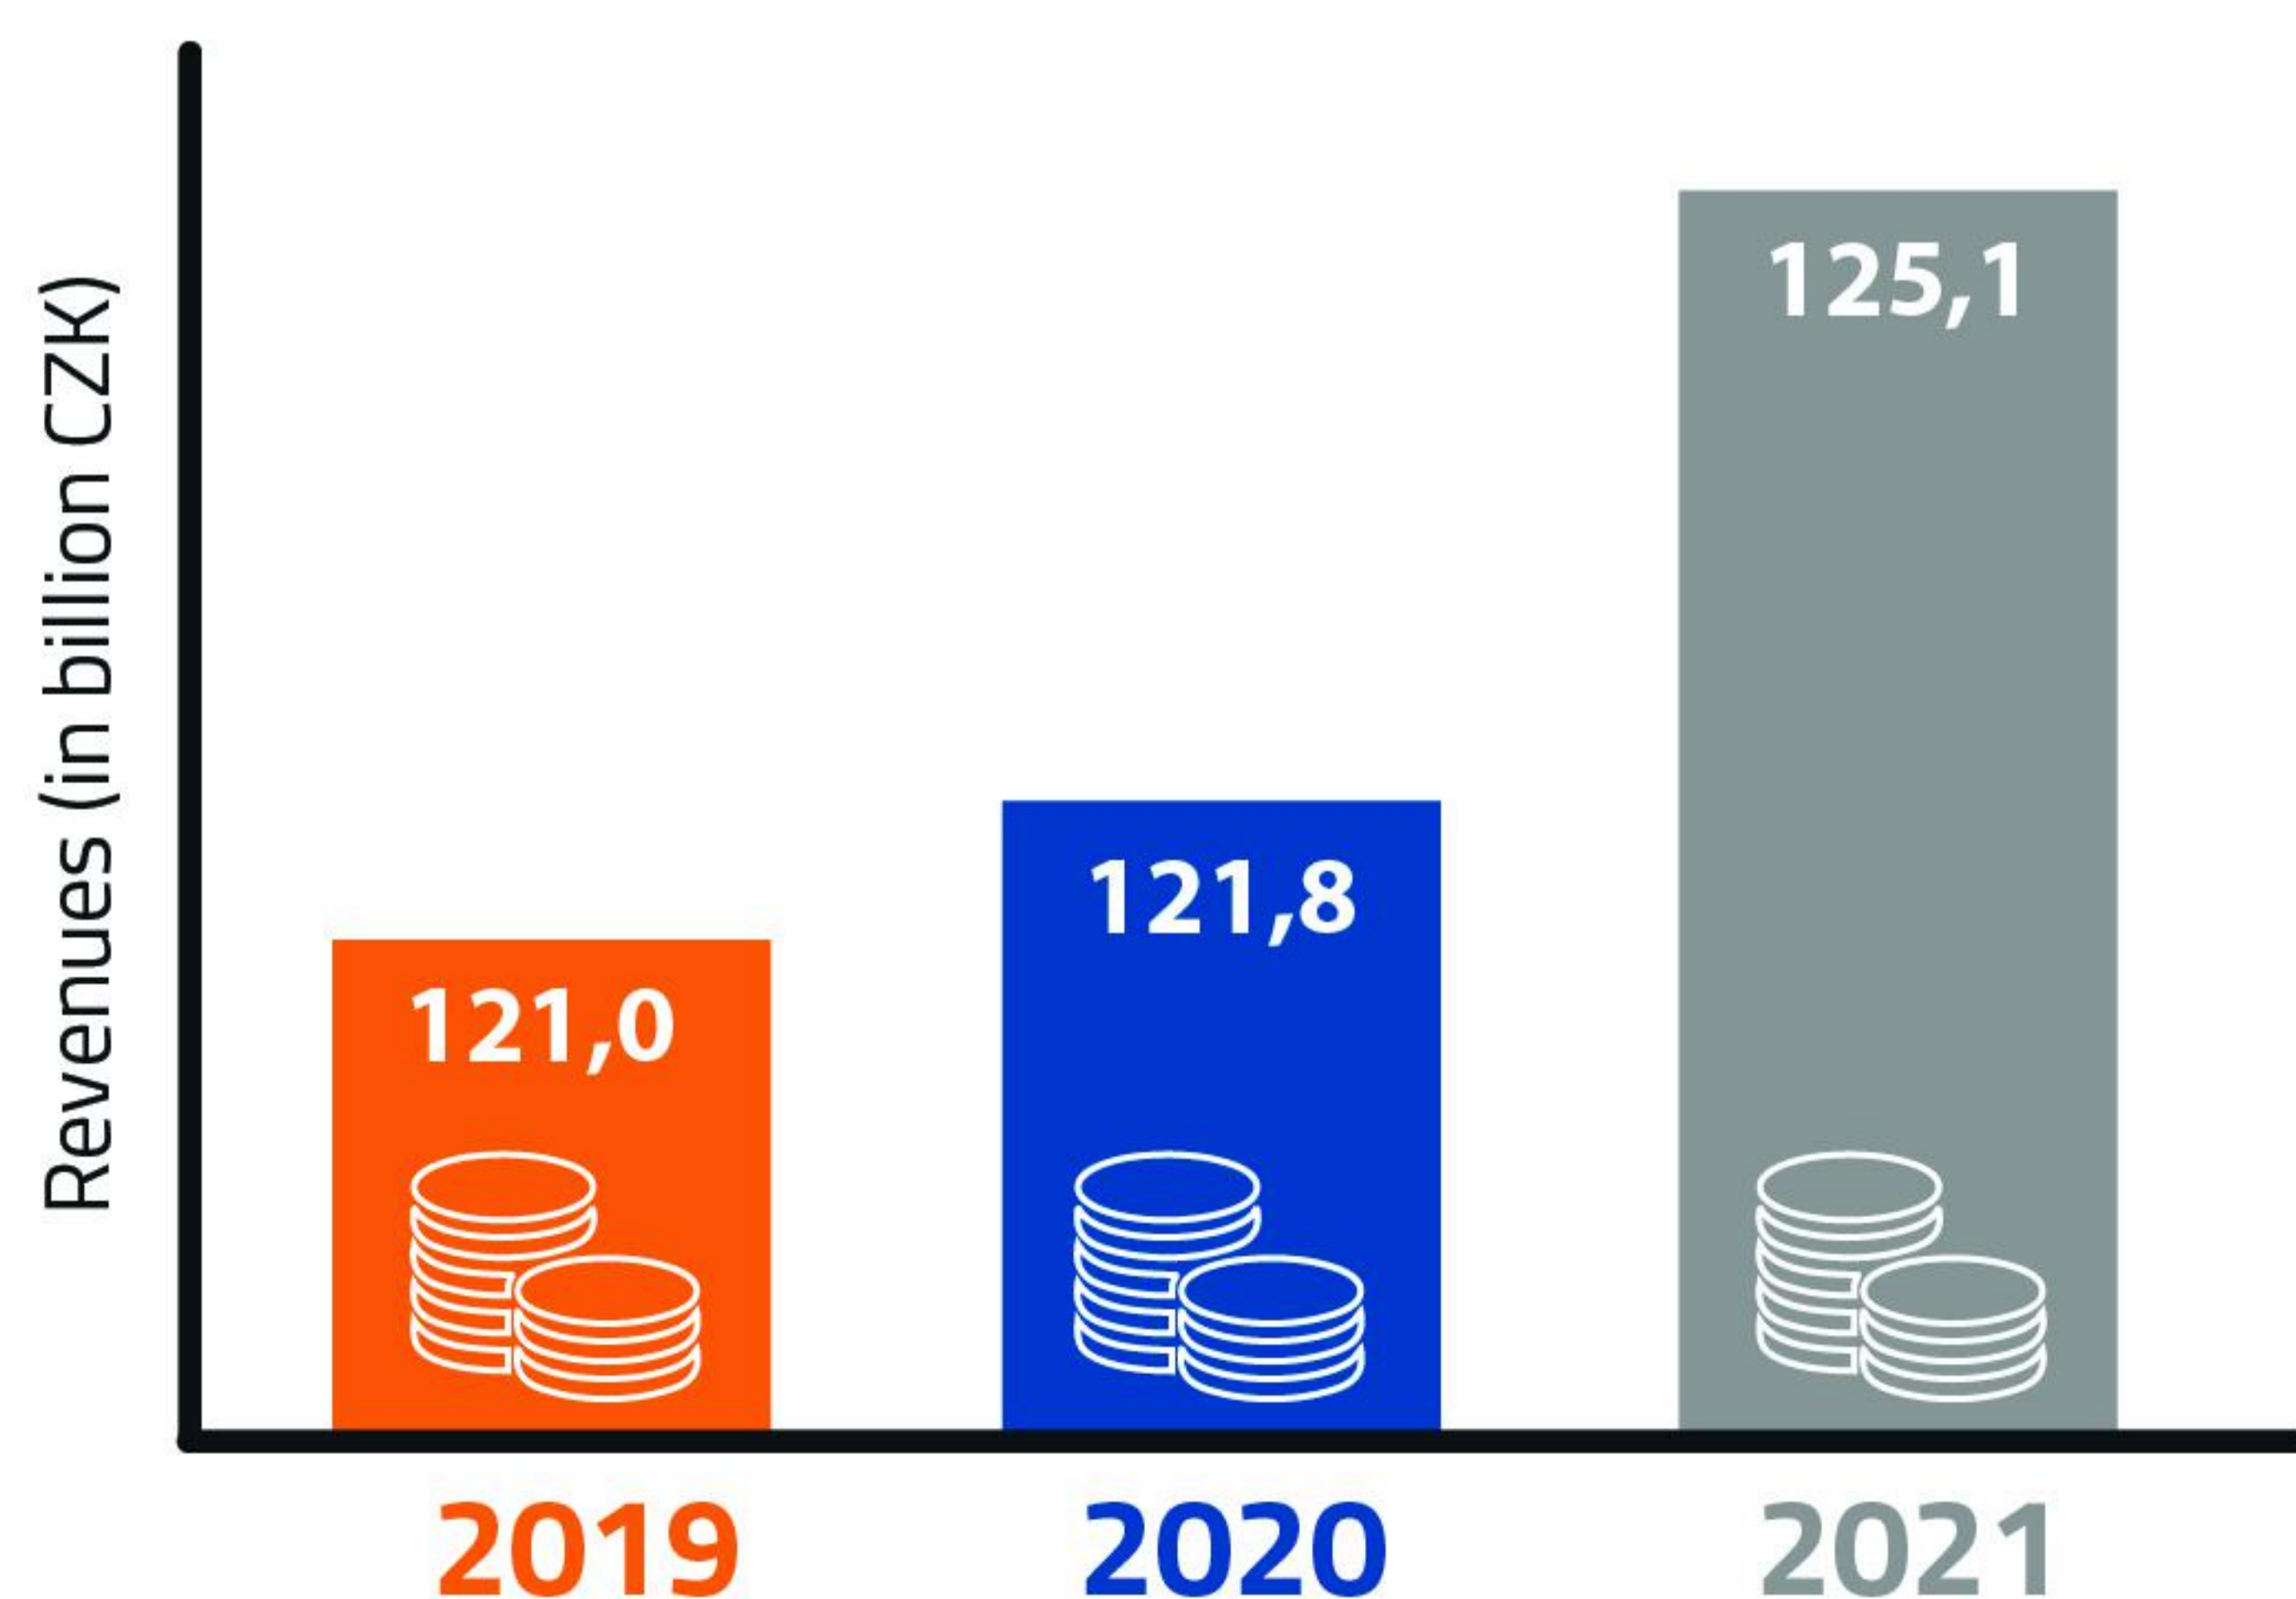

The number of internet access services at a fixed location approached 4 million, the increase of the average usage of data slowed down.

IPTV reached 1 million subscribers and became the most utilised pay TV platform.

The number of active undertakings in electronic communications annually decreased by 3 %.

The growth in total revenues has accelerated again in 2021.

